THE LAST DAY OF CARNIVAL

The City is Again Congested With Delighted Visitors. -- Award of Premiums.

The city has been congested with visitors again today, the last day of the great Carnival.

Fully fifteen thousand people witnessed the spectacular parade last night, and exclamations of delight and surprise were heard on every hand.

Today at 9 a. m. a grand military review took place, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock the sham battle is in progress.

At 8 p. m. another great spectacular parade takes place, and the military ball tonight winds up the festivities.

Prizes Awarded.

The awarding committee made its report this morning, and awarded prizes as follows:

First prize of $100, to Anderson county; second prize of $75, to Smith and Leon counties jointly, the committee not being able to agree that either should have the prize, each being a splendid exhibit.

A Grand Reception.

The reception by Mrs. W. J. Crawford to Mrs. Cone Johnson of Tyler and Gov. Lanham yesterday afternoon was one of the nicest affairs of the Carnival season. Immense throngs visited the pretty Crawford home. Mrs. Cone Johnson is president of the State organization of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Those who assisted Mrs. Crawford in receiving were: Judge and Mrs. John H. Reagan, Mrs. McClain of Mart; Mrs. Shipman of Jacksonville; Miss Kate Daffan of Ennis; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McMeans, Colonel and Mrs. T. M. Campbell, Mrs. Bettie Reagan Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Hufsmith, Mrs. D. J. Price, Mrs. Goodhue of Beaumont; Mrs. Purdon, Capt. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Mobley, and Misses Kate and Pauline Hunter, and Miss Pauline Buck of Elkhart.

The old Confederates called in a body, and their presence added new pleasure and interest to the occasion.

The Herald regrets its inability to make more extended notice of this affair.

K. of P. Banquet.

The K. of P. banquet last evening was all that the local lodges wished it to be -- a grand success. Hundreds of visiting Knights enjoyed this splendid occasion with the local members.

The feast was served by the ladies of the Congregational church, and they deserve praise for the manner in which they provided for the occasion.

The address of welcome was delivered by Knight W. C. Campbell, and was responded to by Grand Chancellor Commander J. F. Onion of San Antonio.

Judge Gregg spoke in behalf of Palestine's claims to the widows and orphan's home, and he made out a splendid "case" for Palestine.

E. O. Griffin of San Antonio also spoke.

Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Miller of Weatherford responded in a happy vein.

D. C. Malloy addressed the visiting Knights in behalf of the Carnival association.

It was a grand occasion, and will long live as a bright episode in K. of P. history.

Judge and Mrs. Gregg

Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6, Judge and Mrs. Gregg threw open their pretty home to their numerous friends, complimentary to their guest, Mrs. Slayden of San Antonio. This reception was a splendid and most enjoyable affair.

VERY FRIGHTFUL WRECKAGE

The List of Damage Done by the Hurricane Is Exceedingly Large.

New York, September 17. -- The death list this morning of yesterday's hurricane, shows a total of thirty, with many injured and many missing. Scores of lives were saved by heroic rescues.

The police patrol boat this morning counted a hundred and ninety wrecked crafts between Hell Gate and Norton's Point, while in Jamaica bay over a hundred boats were overturned or beached. Fifteen vessels were stranded on City Island and thirty-four yachts were dashed to pieces in Gravesend bay. Between Perth Amboy and Bayonne there were fifty wrecked steamers.

AWFUL WORK OF HURRICANE

Schooners Wrecked off the Maine Coast and Fifteen Lost.

Damariscotta, Me., Sept. 17. -- The schooners Sadie and Lillie, of Prospect, Me., and the mackerel seiner George L. Edwards, of Gloucester, were wrecked on Pemaquid Point during the night and 15 lives were lost.

A Narrow Escape.

A narrow escape from a serious conflagration was made last night. About 10 o'clock a blaze was discovered in the office of Nance's Marble Works on Ave. A. It was extinguished with very slight damage. The fire company was not called out.

Saloon vs. the Church

Dr. Lucas has returned from his trip north, and will preach at the First Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. on "The Mission of the Church," and at 7:30 p. m. on "The Saloon vs. the Church." Which shall be banished? The public is cordially invited.

Brushy Creek Death.

Mrs. Davis, wife of Prof. W. F. Davis of Brushy Creek, died yesterday morning. Mrs. Davis was a good woman, and will be sadly missed by a large circle of relatives and friends.

In answering a false fire alarm this morning, one of the fire horses slipped and fell to the hard paving, though miraculously escaped without serious injury.

GRAHAM BROS

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN ANNOUNCING

TO THE LADIES Of Palestine

The arrival from New York of Miss Price, formerly of Dallas, Texas, who has taken charge of our Dressmaking Department, and is now ready to receive orders for designing and making stylish gowns according to the very latest models of the seasons.

Miss Price spent several weeks in New York recently attending the openings of the fashionable modistes of that great fashion center and brings with her copies of the very newest creations of the dressmakers' art. She will be glad to make the acquaintance of any who may desire the services of an accomplished dressmaker.

Respectfully,

Graham Bros.
